Everyone loves spring, which arrives with such freshness, vibrant color, and beauty. This year, because God has more than answered all our prayers for rain to end the drought in California, we should have one of our most beautiful spring's ever, and it's easy to associate spring with new life.

Easter is symbolic of the new life that can be ours. Jesus' resurrection from the tomb shows the tremendous urge of the new life of God that can be born in us and to continue to live in us. Jesus knew enough about his own spiritual nature to cooperate with it in making the tremendous overcoming of resurrecting his body. The same urge (and power) for the expression of new life lives actively in you and in me.

Resurrection is one of Unity's most powerful ideals. We need to awaken to and cooperate with its urge within us. When we accept the idea of new life in our consciousness, it immediately first springs forth in the body. We then further awaken to the glory of the risen Christ Spirit in our soul. The Christ Spirit has been there all the time, but we are resurrecting it and empowering it through our thinking, feeling, our faith, and our belief.

One of my favorite prayers is based on the words of Jesus, "I am the resurrection and the life." I also like to add, "And I rise triumphant out of every circumstance." The Christ Spirit within you can exalt you and lift you up from any thought or feeling of defeat, frustration, or failure.

Use this prayer, "I am the resurrection and the life, and I rise triumphant out of every circumstance." You will find yourself experiencing the joy and wonder of new life and new purpose within you and, your life and affairs will take on a triumphant glory.

Prayer and Loving Service

While I was a member of First Congregational Church of Auburn, the church said they needed a person to assist the minister in visiting members, so I volunteered. From that point on I began to visit the home bound, those in retirement and nursing homes, and those in the hospital.

A few years later, after I switched to Unity, and saw that there was no intentional visiting going on, Rick and I volunteered to do the visiting, and we have been doing it for over ten years. We have tried to visit everyone we knew of, or we've been told about.

Most recently we have been reaching out to a number of those who used to come to Unity of Auburn.

Visiting these people has been a very rich experience for us. We have been with people as they when they were sick and came to bring a little bit of joy. We have been friends to those in nursing homes, and have even been companions with those who were preparing to make their transitions. All and all it has been a rich experience for us. And we are grateful to serve.

If your interested in serving on the Care and Concern Team let Rev. Cherie know.

If you or someone you know would be blessed by a home visit, please connect with Rick or I at avareich@yahoo.com or call (530) 320-5385.

Imagine being the best person or best Christ self you can be! This class is designed to give you powerful tools for doing just that — thus transforming your life.

The foundational ideas presented in this class are derived from the work of Charles Fillmore in his book, The Twelve Powers of Man and offers an easy-to-understand guide for the practical application and use of these Twelve Powers in everyday life.

Letter from the Board for April 2023

There is so much happening at Unity of Auburn – so many opportunities for learning, service, fellowship, and fun! Join us every Sunday, in person or on Facebook, for Reverend Cherie’s inspiring messages. She is also teaching “Power Up”, a class on the Twelve Powers, each Wednesday evening through April 12. Frontiers of Consciousness meets the last Monday evening of every month. The leader, Jacob Walker, presents new discoveries at the intersection of science and philosophy in this fascinating class. Every Wednesday our Sisters Group meets in Manning Hall for discussions of interesting books and the sharing of ideas and fellowship.

Additional Up-coming special events include:

| April 9 | Easter Service |
| May 6 | Pet Blessing Festival |
| May 14 | Mother’s Day |
| May 20 | Forgiveness Workshop |
| June 11 | Jason and DeMarco Special Music Sunday |

Coming later in the year are our Variety Show, Halloween Bingo Night, Events to support the Auburn Food Closet, The Ladies Tea, Thanksgiving Potluck, Decorating the Church for Christmas, Celebration of Remembering Loved Ones, Christmas Candlelight Service, and Burning Bowl.

Our church grows through your participation and outreach. Make one Sunday a month your “Bring a Friend to Unity” Sunday. I was introduced to Unity of Auburn by a friend who took the time to invite me. What greater gift could you give a loved one than the opportunity to hear the Unity message of hope, peace, and abundant life?

We are blessed by the work of our many volunteers, including our members who man the Thrift Shop. Clear a space in your life by bringing gently used clothing and household items that you need to release to support our Thrift Shop and our ministry.

To all our members and friends, blessings from me, Kathleen, and the Unity of Auburn Board of Directors!
