Attitudes of Consciousness to Prosper You

As we continue our summer of prosperity, we are building an expanded consciousness of abundance. Charles Fillmore, Unity's co-founder, pointed out something remarkably interesting that we should all take a moment to consider when we think about growing our own consciousness.

He shared, "Those who are born and bred to riches usually have plenty all their lives even though they never make the effort to earn a dollar for themselves. This is because the ideas of plenty are so interwoven into their thoughts they have a consciousness of prosperity in which there is no idea of any condition under which the necessities of life could be lacking."

Here are a few attitudes of consciousness to strengthen your prosperity.

1. Prosperous people develop a prosperity mind-set.

Over the years you have cultivated certain habits and practices that are a part of how you live your life. Your prosperity (including your feelings about money) need not be weighed down by limiting fantasies. Your subconscious mind is programmed on how much abundance you will accept, and you must tell it how much you want to receive.

2. All creation moves from idea to form.

In demonstrating increased prosperity, your belief must be accompanied by your personal concept of exactly how much abundance defines prosperity to you, because over time, your demonstration will come to be equivalent to your expectation.

3. Prosperous people claim what they "do" want.

In Unity we teach that "life is consciousness" and there is no demonstration of your desire without the consciousness of the good to be demonstrated. When your vibration is not a match with your desired good, the good is there but you are not letting it in.

The thing that most interferes with letting it in is the unconscious habit of thinking more about what you "don't" want than what you "do" want. It is particularly important that you consciously distinguish between when you are holding the actual thought of having what you want compared to holding the thought of not having it.

4. Prosperous people are not afraid to think expansively.

Take your conscious mind out beyond what you can believe is possible for your life. Lift into the realm of Divine Mind and stay there. It is like holding a muscle in a tight stretch that at first feels uncomfortable, but after a while your muscle relaxes to accommodate the stretch and your mind will begin to believe your vision is possible.

Think big, spiritual life and affirm:

- I have abundant resources to pay for the things I love.
- I accept prosperity and abundance into my life now.
- I am abundance. . . abundance in financial resources, success, love, health...whatever I desire.

I encourage you to spend some time dwelling in the infinite universal supply of divine substance and wrap your mind and heart around the largest concept you can!

You are prosperous!

Elizabeth Rawson

Hello Unity of Auburn!

As we each navigate the challenges of our current summer high temperatures, we need to also manage not just staying cool, but the safety of staying hydrated, and choosing to practice calming moments.

I personally am a wimp in the heat. I am finding the summer version of “cabin fever” far more challenging than our winters here in the foothills that allow cool (even cold!) walks in the rain with misty views...

To step away from what can become my “heat snarkies,” it helps me to remember to use the simple habit of a count of 3 as I breathe in, releasing the breath to a count of six, with at least three deep breaths as I choose to take quieting moments to go into the silence~

We have learned through Unity that in this silence, our consciousness grows, our awareness is strengthened, calling forth the power and ease of Grace within us.

This simple practice begins to manifest peace within each of us as we rest in the silence, calming our very souls. As we each act with reverence for ourselves and for all, we contribute peace to the world.

Through our Spiritual community we know that we are not alone in your human situations; we move forward in the understanding we can remember to breath and release, allowing Divine Spirit to guide you throughout your day. Holding gratitude in our hearts, we shine with light, love and grace~

Chaplain Elizabeth Rawson

'May today there be peace within. May you trust that you are exactly where you are meant to be. May you not forget the infinite possibilities that are born of faith in yourself and others. May you use the gifts that you have received, and pass on the love that has been given to you. May you be content with yourself just the way you are. Let this knowledge settle into your bones, and allow your soul the freedom to sing, dance, praise and love.

It is there for each and every one of us.'

Bev Barnett

Bev Barnett believes that creativity is a choice, and curiosity is a super fuel. She's an inspirational speaker with an infectious positive outlook and a life philosophy that boils down to 'Go where the yesses are.' She's moved through multiple careers that have coincided with newfound life truths, and attributes her most meaningful yesses to an infinitely benevolent universe that is always ready and willing to collaborate.

She has more than 30 years' experience in technology marketing and communications, has served on the boards of four arts and music non-profits and is an accomplished singer-songwriter and visual artist working in hand-made paper and naturally dyed fiber.

She and her husband Greg Newlon have recorded three albums of original contemporary folk music, which they've shared in live concerts throughout the West Coast and Southwestern states. They currently reside in the Sacramento area and, collectively, they have four grown children and four grandchildren.

There is so much going on around here! Our late summer and fall are going to be filled with exciting events, classes and fun! The Women's Tea, BINGO, a yard sale and special concert are just a few of the things on the agenda. Watch the newsletter and website for more information on dates, times, etc.

Our Women's Tea is returning for the first time since 2019. The theme this year is the Queen's Jubilee Tea in honor of Queen Elizabeth II's jubilee celebration this year. There's going to be fabulous food in the tradition of a high tea, a fashion show, raffle, prize for the best hat and, of course, tea! Ladies, invite friends and relatives. We think tickets are going to go fast, so we suggest you get your tickets as soon as they go on sale in early August.

On April 7th we have having a meeting for anyone interested in serving on the Care and Concern Team. This is an important part of the Board's vision to better serve our community through pastoral care, meal assistance for those recovering from illness or injury, community involvement and following up with those we haven't seen for a while. I'm guessing there's something that could interest anyone willing to volunteer to help support this ministry.

Our budget and finance team is in formation. This team will help the Board and Treasurer to set the budget, mind the financial store and develop ideas to pass along to the fundraising team (formerly the prosperity team). If you are interested in serving on this team, see Natalie Kimball or Rev. Cherie Larkin.

The Board held its mid-year planning session in June to set priorities for the rest of the year. Key items include:

- Revenue generation
- Forming a Budget and Finance Team
- Forming a Care and Concern Team
- Expanding the Prayer Chaplain Team
- Adding to Board Membership

Finally, watch for our annual World Day of Prayer service on September 4th. Our fabulous Chaplain Team will be presenting their experiences and thoughts on this year's theme, "Holding the High Watch". We know it will be both inspirational and filled with practical ideas.

So, fasten your seatbelts. The rest of 2022 at Unity of Auburn is going to be chock full of great service opportunities awesome ways to enhance your spiritual practice and fun!

With blessing to all, Natalie
